

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wild Sheep Society of British Columbia announces 1Campfire.
Welcome to our Campfire

Reno Nevada USA- February 8 2019.

The Wild Sheep Society of British Columbia has created 1Campfire, a platform designed to educate and enlighten the non- hunting community to the hunter gatherer way of life.

Across North America and around the globe, hunting opportunities are being reduced, emotionally challenged or even eliminated entirely. In many parts of the world, hunting and hunters are misunderstood if not outright reviled. This needs to change.

" We, as hunters and conservationists have a deep rooted connection to nature, to our food that some cannot understand. The goal of 1Campfire is to help those that do not know what we are about, to learn and embrace this connection. And to stand with us."- Kyle Stelter, WSSBC President.

You love the outdoors, care about where your food comes from, and are concerned for the future of wildlife and the environment they need to survive, and so do we. And, although you may think our differences far outweigh our similarities, this couldn't be further from the truth.

Welcome to our campfire. We have a story to tell.
