RE: The 2023 Kamloops Fundraiser – Donation Request

The Wild Sheep Society of British Columbia (WSSBC) is a non-profit organization led by a dedicated group of volunteers who strive to promote and enhance wild sheep habitat in British Columbia. We will be hosting our annual Fundraising weekend with a dinner banquet & Live/Silent Auction on March 10th - 11th 2023. This is our pinnacle fundraising event, and we are expecting over 400 people to attend. We are currently collecting merchandise and services for this fundraiser and are requesting your generous support. The money raised at this event will be used to fund important wild sheep disease research, and habitat enhancement projects in British Columbia.

We are committed to making 2023 a success for wild sheep, and we are hoping for your generous help in furthering wild sheep conservation across the landscape. Over the past 40 months the WSSBC has committed roughly one million dollars in funding for wildlife conservation. By donating, you are supporting a worthwhile cause, and gaining valuable exposure at our event. We currently have close to 1,300 dedicated members, and a significant social media reach.

Thank you for your consideration; any support is greatly appreciated as this will help us to succeed in funding more conservation projects. To recognize the generosity and support of our donors we have several different sponsorship levels that will help acknowledge your organizations contribution to wildlife, and their habitat.
